

MaryBarbara McDougal

Ms. MaryBarbara McDougal, a 30-year DoD Civilian Employee, learned long ago that she had a “knack for numbers.” This innate talent enabled her to develop a career in Resource Management.

In 2012, as an employee of the Air Advisor Academy, MaryBarbara volunteered to become the Air Advisor Memorial Foundation Treasurer and considers it an honor to be part of the AAMF.

Her children are now grown adults, and she has the pleasure of being a grandmother.

Ask her how she is doing, and she will immediately respond with “Always Good!”

Her passion is family, friendship, her dogs, along with a plethora of hobbies.
